

RANKING WOMEN PLAYERS EASY WINNERS IN APAWAMIS TENNIS

MISS BANCROFT AND MISS BALLIN SCORE

Loom Strongest in Field and Are Favored to Meet in Final.

EACH YIELDS TWO GAMES

Miss Newton, Miss Hauselt, Miss Chapman and Miss Heaton Advance.

Suzanne Is Victor in Three Tennis Finals

PARIS, June 12. (Associated Press).—Miss Suzanne Lenglen remains the singles, doubles and mixed doubles champion of France at hard-court tennis. She retained her singles title against the challenger, Mme. Golding, on Saturday. Yesterday she won the mixed doubles with M. Brugnon from Mme. Golding and M. Borotra, 6-0, 4-0, and with Mme. Pigneron, took the women's doubles from the challengers, Mlle. Conquet and Mme. Danet, 6-2, 6-1.

By SAMUEL J. BROOKMAN.

Two ranking players stand out so prominently in the women's invitation tennis tournament which opened yesterday at the Apawamis club that one need have no hesitancy in naming them the probable finalists. They are Miss Leslie Bancroft of Boston and Miss Florence Ballin of New York. It is difficult to see how any of the other entrants can hope to check their advance to the cup round. Nothing short of a startling upset can accomplish it, and there is no reason to anticipate any complete form reversal.

As the draw stands, Miss Rosamond Newton of Boston, Miss Marion Chapman of Boston, Miss Edna Hauselt are Miss Bancroft's strongest rivals in the upper half, and neither should force her to the limit to win. In the opposite half Miss Mary Heaton, Mrs. F. Welby and Mrs. Samuel Waring are the ablest players. Miss Ballin has a wide response of. She should do so if she is anywhere near her best form.

Progress Is Rapid.

Progress was so rapid on the opening day of the tournament that thirty-six of the fifty entrants were eliminated. A high wind put a premium on hard hitting rather than defensive play during the afternoon, and as a result there was some spirited tennis in the majority of the matches. All of the first and second round contests were completed, and two players, Miss Rosamond Newton and Mrs. Shoppe reached the fourth round. Miss Bancroft took her first match by default and then defeated Mrs. J. Saks with the loss of only two games. The Boston girl found it possible to play leisurely throughout the contest. In her next match, however, Miss Bancroft did not play to her advantage. She was defeated by Mrs. J. Saks, who won by a score of 6-2, 6-1.

Miss Edna Hauselt attracted considerable attention by her striking set of victories over Miss Helen Simpson and Mrs. Percy Wilbourn. Despite a most unorthodox backhand, Miss Hauselt won both matches with plenty to spare. She is fast covering court, hits hard off the forehand and has good control of a deep forcing shot. With a reliable backhand Miss Hauselt would do far. Just now it is nothing more than a queer sort of push shot that has neither speed nor direction.

FIRST ROUND.

Mrs. Betty Womham defeated Mrs. Eyre, 6-4, 6-2.
Miss J. Saks defeated Mrs. Hunt, 6-4, 6-4.
Miss Leslie Bancroft won from Miss Daulton by default.
Mrs. Sidney Wolf defeated Mrs. Drake Smith, 6-0, 6-2.
Miss Marion Chapman won from Miss E. Davidson by default.
Miss Edna Hauselt defeated Miss Helen Simpson, 6-0, 6-2.
Mrs. Percy Wilbourn defeated Mrs. Harry P. Moore, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3.
Miss U. W. Parke defeated Miss Jessie Golt, 6-0, 1-6, 6-2.
Mrs. J. C. Bailey defeated Mrs. J. Collingwood, 6-2, 6-3.
Miss Fisher defeated Miss E. Sherman, 7-5, 6-1.
Miss Theodora Schot won from Miss Helen Gillespie by default.
Miss Helen Gillespie defeated Mrs. Paul Martin, 6-2, 6-3.
Miss Katherine O'Rourke defeated Miss A. Turner, 7-5, 6-2.
Miss Mary Henton defeated Mrs. M. Elliot, 6-3, 6-4.
Miss Whitney defeated Mrs. Lowenthal, 6-1, 6-4.
Mrs. F. Welby defeated Mrs. Hanco, 6-0, 6-2.
Mrs. Kaiterhorn defeated Miss R. Golden, 6-0, 6-2.
Miss Penelope Davies defeated Mrs. Frederic Damrau, 6-0, 6-3.

SECOND ROUND.

Miss Rosamond Newton defeated Miss Isabelle Munn, 6-2, 6-4.
Miss A. Sherwood defeated Mrs. W. H. Adams, 6-1, 6-3.
Mrs. Shoppe defeated Miss Helen Hooker by default.
Miss Betty Womham defeated Mrs. W. C. Browning, 6-4, 5-7, 6-1.
Miss Leslie Bancroft defeated Mrs. J. Saks, 6-0, 6-2.
Miss Marion Chapman defeated Mrs. Sidney Wolf, 6-3, 6-2.
Miss Edna Hauselt defeated Mrs. Percy Wilbourn, 6-4, 6-2.
Miss Theodora Schot defeated Miss Fisher, 6-2, 6-3.
Miss Helen Gillespie defeated Miss Katherine O'Rourke, 7-5, 6-4.
Miss Whitney defeated Mrs. Lowenthal, 6-2, 6-3.
Mrs. F. Welby defeated Mrs. Kaiterhorn, 6-2, 6-3.
Miss Penelope Davies defeated Miss Katherine Allen, 6-0, 6-4.
Mrs. Samuel Waring defeated Mrs. G. E. Hirsch, 6-4, 6-3.
Mrs. Ingo Harrison defeated Mrs. S. J. Strahan, 7-5, 6-4, 6-3.
Miss Florence Ballin defeated Mrs. Schiff, 6-0, 6-2.

THIRD ROUND.

Miss Rosamond Newton defeated Miss A. Sherwood, 6-2, 6-3.
Mrs. Shoppe defeated Miss Betty Womham, 6-4, 6-3.

Jack Veiock Dead.

RITON, Vt., June 12.—Jack Veiock, nationally known sports writer, died here last night after five months' illness. He contracted a severe cold covering the Army-Navy football game, which was played in a downpour of rain last fall and it developed into tuberculosis.

He entered newspaper work in St. Joseph, Mo., and went from there to Indianapolis, where he served as the sporting editor of the Times. He then came to New York, where he was employed by the International News Service and the Daily Illustrative News. He was with the News when his illness forced him from his desk.

He Rivals Kumagai and Shimizu

SEIICHIRO KASHIO

Wallace Johnson Survives First Day at Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—Andrew Morgan of Brookline, Mass., R. D. Johnson of Pittsburgh and Wallace F. Johnson, the title holder, were among the survivors at the close of the first day's play in the tennis tournament for the championship of Pennsylvania. Morris Duane of Harvard, was eliminated in the first round by E. M. Edwards, Philadelphia, in a hard three set match. The score was 6-1, 6-3, 4-6.

Morgan defeated Horace Hayday, Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-1; R. D. Johnson beat J. M. Farrington, Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4; and Wallace Johnson defeated R. L. Tattall, Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-0.

Harvard Plans Golf Course.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 12.—Plans are under way at Harvard to establish a university golf course. Members of the golf association and Capt. Charles Baker recently inspected the site, which is located in West Cambridge and within walking distance of the college. Fred W. Moore, graduate manager of the athletic association, pointed out to the athletic committee this week the need of a Harvard course for students and professors and secured their approval and support of such a plan.

ROD AND GUN NEWS

Table with 4 columns: Date, Location, Species, Count. Rows for June 13, 14, 15, 16, 17.

Fishing Is Good Generally Now.

Joe Steffano, who runs the Nautilus out of Sheepshead Bay, was on the Scallop Ridge when he last week, and the first of the catch, which was a splendid one. He landed twenty-four weakfish, three bluefish and had some splendid crabs. Tinsley, who is an ardent member of the United Anglers' League, says the prospects for a good week are fine.

Three members of the Uncle Sam Fishing Club, F. Gay, A. Braun and W. Tinsley, starting from Empire Hotel, Canarsie, fishing the last of the week, and the first of the catch, landed twenty-four weakfish, three bluefish and had some splendid crabs. Tinsley, who is an ardent member of the United Anglers' League, says the prospects for a good week are fine.

Capt. Lyons of the Madeline S. ran off to Oyster Bay to take a crack at the flounders and sure enough they found them there as usual. It was thought by some that these cold water flat fish would have made their way to the deep ere this, but they were there in large enough quantities to allow an average catch of about fifty for those on board. George Kimbel of 227 West 115th street, who was on the boat, says he landed more than ninety-seven flounders. He was the high hook man. Capt. Lyons says those flounders are up there for ten days or two weeks yet.

Capt. Lyons of the Madeline S. ran off to Oyster Bay to take a crack at the flounders and sure enough they found them there as usual. It was thought by some that these cold water flat fish would have made their way to the deep ere this, but they were there in large enough quantities to allow an average catch of about fifty for those on board. George Kimbel of 227 West 115th street, who was on the boat, says he landed more than ninety-seven flounders. He was the high hook man. Capt. Lyons says those flounders are up there for ten days or two weeks yet.

Three members of the Uncle Sam Fishing Club, F. Gay, A. Braun and W. Tinsley, starting from Empire Hotel, Canarsie, fishing the last of the week, and the first of the catch, landed twenty-four weakfish, three bluefish and had some splendid crabs. Tinsley, who is an ardent member of the United Anglers' League, says the prospects for a good week are fine.

Flushing on the M. J. R. III. on Friday off the Sheepshead Bay, was made off. The following catches were made: Eddie the chief, thirty blackfish; Schwartz the butcher, thirty-five blackfish; Glynn the dentist, thirty-five blackfish; Fromme the druggist, thirty-five blackfish; Marty the engineer, forty-three blackfish; Jon the mate, sixty blackfish; Willie the baitman, forty-eight blackfish. We all thank the Captain, for he put us on the right grounds—the Chief called it the Mosquito grounds. J. GLICK.

Capt. Fred Flagg of the Shamrock said that he found the fishing very good off Sheepshead Bay. He landed a fine catch of sea bass and blackfish were made. Three of the passengers aboard had eighty-six large sea bass and some fine crabs, seven nice sized blackfish.

Mr. Frank Valentine of Woodbridge, N. J., went down to George Hall's Bay View Hotel on Friday and fished in Barnegat Bay from there. He caught a big mess of fluke, eighteen bluefish, weighing from two and a half to five pounds each. The fishing in the bay at present is very good, according to Hallett.

What is supposed to have been a record catch of black drum was made off Town Bank in the Delaware Bay by Thomas Chamberlain last party, who caught ten fish, the combined weight of which topped the scales at over 500 pounds. Several other boats in the vicinity caught six drumfish each. There were three men in Chamberlain's boat.

Fishing in the Delaware Bay, despite the heat, was very good. Capt. J. H. Clark, of the M. J. R. III, landed a fine catch of sea bass and blackfish were made. Three of the passengers aboard had eighty-six large sea bass and some fine crabs, seven nice sized blackfish.

Mr. Frank Valentine of Woodbridge, N. J., went down to George Hall's Bay View Hotel on Friday and fished in Barnegat Bay from there. He caught a big mess of fluke, eighteen bluefish, weighing from two and a half to five pounds each. The fishing in the bay at present is very good, according to Hallett.

What is supposed to have been a record catch of black drum was made off Town Bank in the Delaware Bay by Thomas Chamberlain last party, who caught ten fish, the combined weight of which topped the scales at over 500 pounds. Several other boats in the vicinity caught six drumfish each. There were three men in Chamberlain's boat.

Fishing in the Delaware Bay, despite the heat, was very good. Capt. J. H. Clark, of the M. J. R. III, landed a fine catch of sea bass and blackfish were made. Three of the passengers aboard had eighty-six large sea bass and some fine crabs, seven nice sized blackfish.

Mr. Frank Valentine of Woodbridge, N. J., went down to George Hall's Bay View Hotel on Friday and fished in Barnegat Bay from there. He caught a big mess of fluke, eighteen bluefish, weighing from two and a half to five pounds each. The fishing in the bay at present is very good, according to Hallett.

What is supposed to have been a record catch of black drum was made off Town Bank in the Delaware Bay by Thomas Chamberlain last party, who caught ten fish, the combined weight of which topped the scales at over 500 pounds. Several other boats in the vicinity caught six drumfish each. There were three men in Chamberlain's boat.

Fishing in the Delaware Bay, despite the heat, was very good. Capt. J. H. Clark, of the M. J. R. III, landed a fine catch of sea bass and blackfish were made. Three of the passengers aboard had eighty-six large sea bass and some fine crabs, seven nice sized blackfish.

Mr. Frank Valentine of Woodbridge, N. J., went down to George Hall's Bay View Hotel on Friday and fished in Barnegat Bay from there. He caught a big mess of fluke, eighteen bluefish, weighing from two and a half to five pounds each. The fishing in the bay at present is very good, according to Hallett.

What is supposed to have been a record catch of black drum was made off Town Bank in the Delaware Bay by Thomas Chamberlain last party, who caught ten fish, the combined weight of which topped the scales at over 500 pounds. Several other boats in the vicinity caught six drumfish each. There were three men in Chamberlain's boat.

Fishing in the Delaware Bay, despite the heat, was very good. Capt. J. H. Clark, of the M. J. R. III, landed a fine catch of sea bass and blackfish were made. Three of the passengers aboard had eighty-six large sea bass and some fine crabs, seven nice sized blackfish.

Mr. Frank Valentine of Woodbridge, N. J., went down to George Hall's Bay View Hotel on Friday and fished in Barnegat Bay from there. He caught a big mess of fluke, eighteen bluefish, weighing from two and a half to five pounds each. The fishing in the bay at present is very good, according to Hallett.

What is supposed to have been a record catch of black drum was made off Town Bank in the Delaware Bay by Thomas Chamberlain last party, who caught ten fish, the combined weight of which topped the scales at over 500 pounds. Several other boats in the vicinity caught six drumfish each. There were three men in Chamberlain's boat.

S. KASHIO RESUMES WHERE HE LEFT OFF

Brooklyn Title Winner Starts Impressively in New Jersey Tennis Event.

After two days' delay, during which he played and triumphed in the Brooklyn tennis championship, Seiichiro Kashio made his initial appearance in the New Jersey title tournament on the courts of the Montclair Athletic Club yesterday and breezed through two matches without drawing a long breath. He defeated in turn L. S. Ford and W. N. Packard, and won twenty-four out of twenty-five games in so doing. There is little doubt that the Japanese, whose game has improved wonderfully in a season, is the man the rest of the contenders have to beat for the title.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Kernan Leaves Yale To-day.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 12.—Insisting that he has not signed a contract, Jim Kernan, the Yale catcher, to-night stated that he will to-morrow leave here and go to Reading. He admits that he expects to adjust matters so that he will join that team. He was in a Yale uniform at practice as usual to-day. Kernan was laid off three weeks ago because of a sprained ankle.

French and Danes Ready for Davis Cup Matches

PARIS, June 12.—The French Davis cup team, Cochet, Borotra and Cousteau, will leave Wednesday for Copenhagen to meet the Danish players in the second round of the Davis cup matches, which will be played next Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The Danish team will be composed of Erik Tegner, Wagn Ingwersen, Petersen and Bach, the latter two newcomers to international tennis.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

There had been some uncertainty as to whether a French team would go to Copenhagen for the Davis cup play, as it was believed Cochet would be unable to make the trip on account of his military service. He has, however, obtained a month's leave from military duty and this will also permit him to participate in the Wimbledon tournament.

Other prominent players who came through yesterday were Herbert L. Bowman, Harlem challenge cup winner and finalist in the Brooklyn championship; Vanderbilt D. Ward, the playing through title holder; Philip O. Bodkin, the Harlem Tennis Club champion; Gerald Emerson, of Columbia University; Carl Joffit, of Montclair, and I. Bitchik, of New York University. Bitchik surprised yesterday by his defeat of L. Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, outstaying and outgunning his man in the second and third divisions of play. Fisher had his usual speed and stinging drive, but he was then defeated by some wild hitting in the latter half of the match. He was overruling the base line repeatedly.

Herbert Bowman, as steady as usual, won two matches and moved into the round before the semi-final. The match with Anton F. von Bernuth, which had been halted by the storm on Sunday, was completed in straight sets, but before Bowman could clinch his victory he had to call on all the skill and speed he had at command. The second set ran to a tie, 1-1, and the match was then decided by a splendid showing in the earlier rounds, was eliminated by Philip O. Bodkin. He made a determined bid after dropping the first set and evened the score, only to be defeated in the second set, 6-4.

With the Scholastic Athletes

Frank Hussey, who established the record of 9-10 seconds for the 100 yard dash, will have two more years to lower that mark before he leaves Stuyvesant. He is now a fourth termer and at the rate he is progressing, with only a year since he put on spiked shoes, the record is destined to stand only a short time.

Carlos Figueroa, who made the record of 21-9-10 seconds for the 220 yard dash, will also have another chance to smash that mark, although it seems to be low enough to stand for a good many years.

The championship games of the upper Manhattan and Bronx high schools will be held this afternoon at Lewisohn Stadium, postponed on account of wet grounds from last Tuesday.

The schools entered are George Washington, winner of the title last year; Evander Childs, Morris, Townsend Harris Hall and Theodore Roosevelt.

Of those who scored in the championships on Saturday, Victor Lambert of Evander, A. Newman of Evander, Willie Siegel of Morris and S. Friedlander of George Washington, are sure winners in their events.

The third of the "Big Three" trophies, the Yale cup, awarded by the Poly Prep Club of Yale to the most deserving athlete in the junior class at Poly Prep, was presented to Craig La Vin, captain of the track team, at the exercises of the junior class held recently. P. E. Cass had received the Harvard cup for the best senior class athlete, and Stuart Mendes, the Princeton cup for the best in the sophomore class. La Vin also received the Yale cup offered by the Alpha Iota Epistol fraternity to the athlete scoring the most points during the past season. He was credited with 79 1/2 points.

Robert Bergen, sprinter, received the Sigma Delta Psi cup for the boy scoring the most points in track events, 26 1/2, and to Tom Fogarty, quarter miler and pole vaulter, went the Sigma Delta Psi cup for the high scoring field athlete. He had 21 tallies.

The Colgate cup, donated by the Poly Prep Club of that college, has been presented to Harry Molitor, football and baseball player, for the best scholar who had earned two school letters.

Three boys were awarded medals for breaking school records. They were La Vin, for the 100 yard dash, 9-10; Robert Bergen, for the 100 yard dash, 9-10; and Tom Fogarty, for the 100 yard dash, 9-10.

Other matches included: W. L. Davenport, Springfield, defeated A. L. Wiener, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-4; Neil Chapin, Springfield, defeated A. G. Norw, Hartford, 6-0, 6-2; Phil Roberts, Hartford, defeated Paul Gibbons, Philadelphia, 6-3, 7-5; J. W. Hartmark, Hartford, defeated E. Brown, Springfield, 6-0, 6-1; Raymond Snow, Springfield, defeated J. S. Garvan, Hartford, 6-1, 6-2; George Spauld, Stamford, defeated T. E. Canfield, Hartford, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4; A. H. Chapin, Jr., Springfield, defeated E. L. Dewing, Hartford, 6-1, 7-5; E. W. Dawson, New York, defeated W. T. Hooper, Hartford, 6-3, 6-1.

Other matches included: W. L. Davenport, Springfield, defeated A. L. Wiener, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-4; Neil Chapin, Springfield, defeated A. G. Norw, Hartford, 6-0, 6-2; Phil Roberts, Hartford, defeated Paul Gibbons, Philadelphia, 6-3, 7-5; J. W. Hartmark, Hartford, defeated E. Brown, Springfield, 6-0, 6-1; Raymond Snow, Springfield, defeated J. S. Garvan, Hartford, 6-1, 6-2; George Spauld, Stamford, defeated T. E. Canfield, Hartford, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4; A. H. Chapin, Jr., Springfield, defeated E. L. Dewing, Hartford, 6-1, 7-5; E. W. Dawson, New York, defeated W. T. Hooper, Hartford, 6-3, 6-1.

Other matches included: W. L. Davenport, Springfield, defeated A. L. Wiener, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-4; Neil Chapin, Springfield, defeated A. G. Norw, Hartford, 6-0, 6-2; Phil Roberts, Hartford, defeated Paul Gibbons, Philadelphia, 6-3, 7-5; J. W. Hartmark, Hartford, defeated E. Brown, Springfield, 6-0, 6-1; Raymond Snow, Springfield, defeated J. S. Garvan, Hartford, 6-1, 6-2; George Spauld, Stamford, defeated T. E. Canfield, Hartford, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4; A. H. Chapin, Jr., Springfield, defeated E. L. Dewing, Hartford, 6-1, 7-5; E. W. Dawson, New York, defeated W. T. Hooper, Hartford, 6-3, 6-1.

Other matches included: W. L. Davenport, Springfield, defeated A. L. Wiener, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-4; Neil Chapin, Springfield, defeated A. G. Norw, Hartford, 6-0, 6-2; Phil Roberts, Hartford, defeated Paul Gibbons, Philadelphia, 6-3, 7-5; J. W. Hartmark, Hartford, defeated E. Brown, Springfield, 6-0, 6-1; Raymond Snow, Springfield, defeated J. S. Garvan, Hartford, 6-1, 6-2; George Spauld, Stamford, defeated T. E. Canfield, Hartford, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4; A. H. Chapin, Jr., Springfield, defeated E. L. Dewing, Hartford, 6-1, 7-5; E. W. Dawson, New York, defeated W. T. Hooper, Hartford, 6-3, 6-1.

Other matches included: W. L. Davenport, Springfield, defeated A. L. Wiener, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-4; Neil Chapin, Springfield, defeated A. G. Norw, Hartford, 6-0, 6-2; Phil Roberts, Hartford, defeated Paul Gibbons, Philadelphia, 6-3, 7-5; J. W. Hartmark, Hartford, defeated E. Brown, Springfield, 6-0, 6-1; Raymond Snow, Springfield, defeated J. S. Garvan, Hartford, 6-1, 6-2; George Spauld, Stamford, defeated T. E. Canfield, Hartford, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4; A. H. Chapin, Jr., Springfield, defeated E. L. Dewing, Hartford, 6-1, 7-5; E. W. Dawson, New York, defeated W. T. Hooper, Hartford, 6-3, 6-1.

Other matches included: W. L. Davenport, Springfield, defeated A. L. Wiener, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-4; Neil Chapin, Springfield, defeated A. G. Norw, Hartford, 6-0, 6-2; Phil Roberts, Hartford, defeated Paul Gibbons, Philadelphia,